It can be found electronically on https://financialreports.lafargeholcim.com/2016/downloads/pdf/compensation_report_lhn_ar16.pdf and on pages 128–148 of the 2016 Annual Report.

In addition, expense allowances of CHF 10,000 are paid to each member, and the chairman of the Board of Directors will in addition receive a secretarial allowance of CHF 60,000.

In addition to the total shown above, mandatory Swiss social security payments have to be made by LafargeHolcim Ltd for certain Board members. Proposed total maximum amount of compensation of the Executive Committee for the financial year 2018

The total maximum amount proposed for shareholders' approval at the Annual General Meeting 2017 is CHF 40,500,000. The following chart illustrates what total compensation for all Executive Committee members could be in three scenarios:

- "Minimum", where only fixed compensation would be paid.
- "Target", where annual bonuses for 2018 would be paid at 60% of maximum, and 2018 awards under the Performance Share Plan would vest at target, i.e. at 50% of maximum.
- "Maximum", where annual bonuses would be paid out at maximum (CEO: 200% of basic salary, Executive Committee members: 125% of basic salary) and long-term incentives would vest in full (CEO: 250% of basic salary, Executive Committee members: 140% of basic salary). Note that this scenario would require all Executive Committee members to achieve a payout of 100% in all performance measures of short- and long-term incentive plans, which would be a genuinely exceptional performance.

All amounts in 1 000 CHF

- Fixed pay (salary, pensions, employee benefits and other remuneration)
 - Short-Term Incentives (payable in respect of 2018)
 - Long-Term Incentives (awards to be made in 2018 under the Performance Share Plan)

The split of total compensation into fixed compensation, short-term incentives and long-term incentives is of indicative nature and subject to change. However, the total compensation payable will not exceed the total maximum amount of compensation proposed.

A number of assumptions were used in the elaboration of the total maximum amount of compensation and the above chart:

- The Executive Committee comprises 10 members, including the CEO. Under the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the Company is authorized to make payments to any member(s) that join(s) the Executive Committee during a period for which the Annual General Meeting has already approved the total maximum amount of compensation, where the total amount approved is not sufficient, providing that any amount paid in excess of the total amount approved does not exceed 40% of the total maximum amount of compensation approved.
- The impact of share price variations and dividend equivalents for the proportion of the annual bonus deferred in LafargeHolcim Ltd shares and for the long-term incentives that could be paid has not been taken into account.
- Two Executive Committee members have their compensation denominated in Euros. The impact of future EUR/CHF variations will not be taken into account.
- The amounts shown above are gross, but exclude any employer-paid mandatory social security contributions.
- Amounts shown under fixed pay include a number of international assignment benefits, in line with the LafargeHolcim policy, including housing, school fees and travel allowances.
- The fixed pay amount includes a maximum budget for potential salary increases, if any.
